Optimal Health Program

Did you know at Port Credit Retirement Residences we offer optimal health program. Which means we bring healthcare to you in the comfort of your home. This program, recognizes that everyone is unique and has range of medical needs. The approach is to provide accessible and personalized health care that is tailored to your specific needs. The Nurse Practitioner is partnered with a medical doctor, and is only a phone call away!

Benefits:

1. If you're suddenly feeling ill your Nurse Practitioner will be available to see you in your room.
2. All blood tests, urine tests, x-rays, ultrasounds and ECGs can be done in your own room
3. Nurse Practitioner will make sure that your most up-to-date records go with you if you ever need to go to the hospital

Kelly Gill - Nurse Practitioner

Meet Kelly: Our Nurse Practitioner

Who brings over 20 years of ICU and long-term care experience — is able to manage the majority of your medical needs. Her team includes a physician who visits the Port Credit Residences Monthly or by appointment.

Kelly is on-site twice a week. Which means you don't have to go out to meet your doctor (specially in these cold months). You can have a well-qualified team who can come to your suite to provide you the care you need!
